Hall of Fame Dismissal

The policy on revocation from the HOF - as well as revocation of the honors bestowed on the Inductee - states that the honor of induction into the LSHS Hall of Fame can be revoked if a recipient's conduct departs from the high standards of the award and undermines the credibility, integrity and/or purpose of the induction. Induction into the LSHS Hall of Fame is based on three pillars: professional accomplishment, public service, and character. Removal from the Hall of Fame would require a majority vote by the committee. The Inductee will be notified of revocation by the committee.
